

PUBLIC NOTICE

Reappointment of Judge James J. Robinson Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge, Northern District of Alabama

The current 14-year term of The Honorable James J. Robinson, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Alabama at Anniston, is due to expire on 15 February 2020. The United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit is considering whether to reappoint Chief Bankruptcy Judge Robinson to a new 14-year term of office.

Upon reappointment, the incumbent would continue to exercise the jurisdiction of a bankruptcy judge as specified in United States Code title 28, United States Code title 11, and the Bankruptcy Amendment and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-353, §§ 101-122, 98 Stat. 333-346. In bankruptcy cases and proceedings referred by the district court, the incumbent would continue to perform the duties of a bankruptcy judge that might include holding status conferences, conducting hearings and trials, making final determinations, entering orders and judgments, and submitting proposed finding of fact and conclusions of law to the district court.

Members of the bar and the public are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the Court of Appeals concerning the reappointment of Chief Bankruptcy Judge Robinson to a new 14-year term of office in Anniston. If requested, the identity of a respondent to this solicitation will not be divulged without prior consent. However, Chief Bankruptcy Judge Robinson will be provided with a general description of the source and nature of any comments. All comments should be submitted to Mr. James P. Gerstenlauer, Circuit Executive, Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals, 56 Forsyth Street, NW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. Comments must be received in the Circuit Executive's Office no later than 22 July 2019.
